

Working with Sidebars

In the Edit mode, you can use a left and right sidebar to organize different views into project contents. Only views that are relevant to the mode you are working in are available in it.

You can select views in the sidebar menu (1):

You can change the view of the sidebars in the following ways:

(Cmd+Shift+O on macOS).

- To split a sidebar, click  (Split). Select new content to view in the split view.
- To close a sidebar view, click  (Close).
